Dear Parents

It is with a heavy heart that I am writing to let you all know that I will be retiring as Headteacher at Greenfields at the end of the Summer Term in July 2024.

I was appointed as Headteacher at Greenfields in April 2005 and it has been a privilege to serve the school community throughout this time.

I am currently the longest-serving Headteacher in Nottingham, having been a teacher for nearly 39 years but I have decided that now is the right time for me to retire.

Greenfields is an extraordinary school and I am immensely proud of everything that we have achieved.

It has been an absolute pleasure over the last 19 years to work with so many fantastic children and to get to know so many amazing families in the Meadows. I am fortunate to have worked with many incredibly committed and hardworking staff. I know how much I will miss you all but I know too that Greenfields will continue to go from strength to strength.

Governors are now starting the process of appointing a new Headteacher and are aiming to have someone in post ready to start in September 2024. We will let you know how this process goes.

So ... it's not 'goodbye' yet. There are still two more terms before I will be finishing and lots of time to create even more special 'Greenfields' memories. I just wanted to let you all know as soon as I could.

Best wishes

Terry Smith

Headteacher
Greenfields Community School
